

Hannah (mother of the bride) comes rushing from the distance to speak to the father of the groom who is trying to avoid her. Must speak with a Hebrew accent.

HANNAH

Benjamin...Benjamin... wait I must speak to you.

BENJAMIN

Oh, shalom Hannah, (trying to rush off) good to see you, I must go.

HANNAH

Wait one minute Benjamin I have a question for you.

BENJAMIN

Let me guess Hannah, would it be the same question you ask me every day?

HANNAH

Well...yes, it is, do you have something to tell me Benjamin?
Is it time? Is it time for the wedding?

HANNAH

(As he is leaving)

Benjamin, you are acting a bit suspicious.
I think you have something to tell me.

BENJAMIN

Shalom, have a good night.

HANNAH

(To the guests)

He is very suspicious; Do you not agree?
The time must be near. Shalom everyone,
come and meet my daughter the bride.
We have been waiting for the groom to come a long time.
Now come with me the girls are upstairs.
